A N T I Q U E S
ANTONELLI GIARDELLI
416 Commercial St, 508.487.9693, daily in season: 11-6 and 8-11, off season: Fri-Mon 12-5 and by appointment. Featuring a collection of American Art Pottery circa 1930-1940 including Rockwood, Fulphar, Mattelwood, Van Brigg, Rosville, Weller, etc. Also American painted furniture, lamps, art, rug tops, architectural and garden elements. Baskets, jewelry, and more.
MARINE SPECIALTIES
235 Commercial Street, 508.487.1130 From vintage party frocks to wooden spoons, antique scones to Russian rubber gas masks and British Naval sea coats. Marine Specialties has been a collector's mecca for over 40 years. Samer owner Bill Patrick's years trips to international locales net him several container loads of military surplus: from European mess kits featuring breadboards and cutlery to French vessel capes and Swiss mule saddles.
SMALL PLEASURES
359 Commercial Street, 508.487.3712 Open since 1972, this elegant little shop specializing in antique and estate silver, gold and platinum has catered to an old guard clientele and continues to attract new converts daily. Virginia McKenna, its personable owner, offers a keen sense of humor combined with an expert knowledge of vintage jewelry and objects.
YESTERDAY'S TREASURES
176 Commercial Street, 508.487.9920 This Commercial Street shop in Provincetown's West End is embarking on its 8th summer. The shop offers specialty collectibles such as 20th century art pottery and glass, Provincetown paintings and estate jewelry. One can find an antique cordial glass for a dollar or spend a thousand dollars on an oil painting by a well-known contemporary P town painter.
